The following text is for questions 11 and 12.

I have a Hamster named Scruffy. I got him from a pet shop in the mall. I named him Scruffy, because he always scratched his cage.

Since the first time I got Scruffy, I have fallen in love with him. He is a nice hamster. I put a wheel on his cage. He loves to exercise with it. He often sleeps all day and runs on his wheel all night. That is the one I don’t like. It makes me feel lonely when he sleeps all the time. But I can’t do anything because I know that hamsters are nocturnal.

I spend my spare time with Scruffy. I talk about anything to him. I feel that he could understand me.

One day, I got confused because I lost my bicycle key. I tried to find it every where, but I couldn’t find it. I got tired and sat on my bed. I talked to Scruffy. Suddenly he jumped back and forth many times. When I opened his cage he ran quickly under my bed and he came up bringing my bicycle key. I was very surprised. This made me feel sure that Scruffy understood my words.

11. What is the main idea of the last paragraph?
   A. Scruffy was nocturnal.
   B. Scruffy slept all the time.
   C. The writer exercised Scruffy.
   D. The hamster found the lost key.

12. What does the writer do with Scruffy in his spare time?
   A. Talks to him.
   B. Exercises with him.
   C. Sleeps together all day.
   D. Gives him a bicycle ride.

I absolutely loved my 15th Birthday. I've always wanted to fly in balloon and the trip given by my grandparents as a present is really fun. Des, the pilot and Colin, the road crew were very professional but extremely friendly and welcoming.

Flying up, up and away on a hot air balloon ride is a truly unforgettable experience like no other.

I enjoyed breath-taking views, landmarks and the wonder of nature from a new and unique perspective as they took me to the skies in one of their colourful hot air balloons. I felt exciting and enthusiastic, as I drifted gently across the UK's stunning landscapes at anything up to 5,000 feet. Raised smoothly and silently towards the clouds, the only noise the occasional burst of the burners, I was travel where the wind took me. It was a memories to last a lifetime on my personal hot air balloon experience, which I would tell people about again and again.

This text is for questions 46 to 48.

ONCE upon a time, a grandmother and her granddaughter lived in Roti Island, Nusa Tenggara Timur. They had a field and grew some vegetables. The grandmother sold them at the market.

In one morning, the grandmother would go to the market. Before she left, she asked her granddaughter to cook.
"Please cook some rice for lunch. But just cook one grain of rice. It’s enough for both of us."
"Why, Grandma?" asked the girl.
"Just do what I said."

The grandmother then left for the market. Later, the girl started to cook. However, she felt a grain of rice would not be enough for them.
"I think it’s not enough for me and my grandmother." Then she took two handfuls of rice. Suddenly, something bad happened to the rice pot. "Oh, no! The rice flowed out of the pot!" shouted the girl. "What should I do? The rice became rice porridge. It flowed and flowed until it covered the kitchen. Suddenly, the grandmother came home. The girl explained what happened.

"You are naughty girl! Why didn’t you listen to me? The grandmother was so angry. She hit the girl with a wooden stick.
"Please forgive me, Granma! The little girl cried and cried. But the grandmother kept hitting her.

Then, an incredible thing happened! The girl turned into a monkey. The monkey then ran away and climbed a tree. The grandmother chased it. From the tree, the monkey said. "Grandmother, I’m a monkey now. I cannot live with you anymore. You are all alone."

The monkey climbed up and disappeared. The grandmother was very sad. She regretted what she had done to her beloved granddaughter. "Please come back to me. Please forgive me, my granddaughter!" but it was too late.

The little girl has turned into a monkey and never came home. The people of Roti Island believe this story. And that is until now; people in the Roti Island never hit their children or other people’s child. They are afraid that the child would turn into a monkey. ***
